

FRATERNITIES

(Continued from Seventh Page.)

Following were elected: W. D. Clark, J. E. Borland, A. W. Ashkham, M. J. Hole, E. F. Gibbons, W. H. Wessells, J. E. Rhodes, F. E. Ferguson, Samuel B. Reeder and Samuel H. Jacobson.

J. E. Borland was appointed chairman of a large committee, which was authorized to solicit subscriptions for the National Union temple.

United Council Friday evening elected delegates to the assembly as follows: A. W. Kaiser, C. F. Haden, W. D. Greenbeck, A. S. Brown and J. B. Dickman. The usual award of prizes was made and refreshments were served, after which the members joined in singing old-time songs.

National Council Thursday evening elected W. S. DeWeller as delegate to the assembly. Senator J. Harry Jones was present and addressed the council.

The committee on extension and publicity met Tuesday and made further arrangements for pushing the present campaign for raising funds for the erection of the proposed National Union temple for the use of all of the councils in this city.

The excursion to be given for the benefit of the hospital fund service at Chesapeake Beach, July 26, was considered and suitable committees were appointed.

Congressional Council Wednesday elected the following members as delegates to the assembly: J. T. West, G. T. Boyd, Elmer Johnson, E. B. Bell, J. E. Popper and W. A. Smith.

Central Council has elected Joseph Jacobson as delegate to the assembly and George M. Copenhaver as alternate.

State, War and Navy Council has elected Dr. O. H. Coughlin as delegate to the assembly and W. H. Lewis as alternate.

C. F. Haden and J. Harry Jones addressed the council on the drive for a National Union temple.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Washington Council Tuesday night will give a holiday entertainment and dance for its members and their ladies. Lecturer E. J. Repetti and his committee are in charge.

The council last Tuesday night had an "Old Timers' night," tendering a reception to the five members of the council who had reached the age of eighty years. Fast Grand Knight Leo F. Stock paid tribute to these members in a short address.

Gonzaga College Band furnished music. Nearly four hundred members were present. The members honored were Lawrence Mangum, John Finn, J. J. Dermody, C. Eckloff and J. B. Fay.

The annual convention of the State Council was held in the Knights of Columbus Hall Wednesday night. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: State deputy, Dr. C. I. Griffith; secretary, M. J. Driscoll; treasurer, R. J. Conrad; advocate, Leo A. Rorer; warden, F. J. Dunn; delegates to the Supreme Council convention, to be held in Atlantic City next August, Dr. C. I. Griffith and A. D. Wilkinson.

Dr. C. I. Griffith and A. D. Wilkinson, Dr. C. I. Griffith and Maurice J. McAuliffe, alternates, Dr. Frank O'Hara, R. J. Conrad, T. Gallagher and John Sheel. A resolution was adopted giving to the Archbishop of Baltimore the fraternal greetings and felicitations of the order; also giving $500 for five scholarships in the Catholic high schools of the District.

Resolution of thanks to the dean of the evening school, Dr. Frank O'Hara, and the faculty and the educational committee for conducting the Knights of Columbus Evening School were adopted.

At the meeting of Carroll Council on Tuesday, June 6, the Philomathean Debating Society of Georgetown University will give an illustrated lecture on "The Philomathean Debating Society of Georgetown University."

In Potomac Council Monday announcement was made that the annual memorial communion mass will be celebrated at the St. Aloysius

CHURCH SUNDAY, JUNE 4, AT 8 O'CLOCK.

Rev. Edward Sweeney, chaplain of the council, officiating. Potomac Council voted co-operation with the four other councils to entertain the members of the Soles Cantorum, who came to Washington yesterday singing during the national music week.

Following the meeting a lecture was delivered under the auspices of the Philomathean Debating Society of Georgetown University on "The Living Wage." H. McCarron of Georgetown was a guest of the council.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS OF AMERICA.

Court District of Columbia, No. 512, entertained at supper at the Women's City Club last Sunday evening, in honor of Rev. William P. Hagey, vice chancellor of the archdiocese of Baltimore, preceding the annual vesper services, which took place at St. Patrick's Church.

Saturday evening a large delegation, headed by Grand Regent Mary C. Boland, went to Baltimore, where they are the guests of the Catholic Daughters of America of that city.

They will participate in the liturgical services which will take place there this afternoon.

Miss Katherine Babbington has been appointed chairman of the committee which will have charge of entertaining the Catholic Boy Scouts when they arrive in Washington on June 28.

The scouts, under the leadership of Brother Nerl, are hiking from Charleston, W. Va., and are being entertained along the route by the Catholic Daughters of America.

Tuesday evening the junior court held its first social meeting. Rev. Francis X. Cavanaugh, chaplain, made a short address and after a vocal and instrumental musical program, refreshments were served. At the next meeting, June 13, plans will be made to entertain the mothers of the members at the next social meeting.

IMPROVED ORDER OF RED MEN.

Ocooca, No. 20, has changed its meeting nights from the second and fourth Thursdays to the second and fourth Fridays. The new date has been secured and will be placed in the Red Men's Bowling League. Great Sachem Emory and Chief of Records, Bunch paid the tribe a visit and made addresses at the last meeting.

Red Wing, No. 20, will have as its guests June 5 the great sachem and his board of great chiefs on an unofficial visit. A special committee has charge of the arrangements. Degree work is held nearly every meeting.

Osoaga, No. 6, had Great Sachem Emory and his board at its meeting Saturday night.

Mincola, No. 14, has reported to the great sachem and his board that activities are being staged by the tribe. Great Junior Sagamore Humphries is in charge and has charge of the first part of the 14th.

Idaho Tribe, No. 15, held a class adoption May 20, the work being staged by its own team. Thirty-five applicants were received in the class.

The great sachem was a visitor, and Past Grand Chancellor O. B. Gray of the Knights of Pythias of the District was a member of this class.

Logan Tribe, No. 8, has moved into its new hall, southwest corner 12th and Pennsylvania avenue northwest. The hall will be known as Red Men's Hall, it is in the new building.

Tribe No. 8 has made application for various open nights. For Senate night an elaborate program has been arranged and a large class will be taught the art of making hay.

Mincola Council, No. 8, at a class adoption May 20 had a class of twenty-eight. The work was conducted by the team from Idaho Council, No. 1, under Degree Master T. H. Dennis. This class included part of the charter members of the tribe.

Sioux Council, No. 7, at its last meeting adopted resolutions to be sent to Past Sachem A. C. Nicholas and family upon the death of his wife, who was a member of the council. A delegation from the council was present at the funeral; also a delegation from Sioux Tribe. The council and the tribe are to hold a joint anniversary.

Idaho Council, No. 1, will entertain the great sachem and his board at its next meeting. The council's Kitchen Band will furnish the musical part of the entertainment. It is expected that it will be the last unofficial visit to the council.

The Great Council building committee will hold its next session Sunday, June 4, in Logan Tribe's hall, 12th and Pennsylvania avenue northwest, at 3 p.m.

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD.

Hickory Camp entertained visitors Friday night. Including Woodmen from Baltimore and New York. State Manager Luther C. Jones addressed the camp. Consul Commander Robert W. Shumate announced that this was the first anniversary of the "baby camp" and the visitors and their families.

Past Consul James Tennyson reviewed the first year's struggle and predicted a doubling of the camp's roster in the near future. Refreshments were served.

The distinction of honorary membership was conferred at the last convention of National Camp upon Delos W. Teller, clerk of Alpha Camp of this city. Past Consul Kimmerling of National proposed that in appreciation of his long service to the Woodmen of the World, he be made an honorary member. The election was by acclamation.

Discussions enlivened the session of Fraser Camp Monday evening. Manager P. P. di Marzio made suggestions for the care and handling of the camp's property and accommodations, and announced that he would provide robes for the officers next fall. Ways and means were discussed by Past Consul Rossi and Adviser English.

Consul Commander George M. Green welcomed visitors from Elm Camp. An address was made by Sovereign Albert Whitworth.

There will be no practice drill Tuesday evening. Decoration day, but on each Tuesday of June and July, except the third Tuesdays and the fourth of July, the entire 1922 Regiment will assemble at the north front of the old National Museum and go through formations in preparation for the encampment at Elkhart.

Capt. Quartermaster William G. Stott is prepared to equip all members who apply for uniforms and ornaments. Elm Camp will hold a special surprise event tomorrow night at North-east Masonic Temple to which all Woodmen and their friends and families are invited.

Mal Paul H. Judy inspected Company H at Maple Camp Wednesday night. Capt. Williamson has a full company and it is expected full equipment will be secured for it before the encampment.

MODERN WOODMEN OF AMERICA.

The recently organized Axe and Wedge Club met at the City Club Saturday evening, as guests of Mr. Potter of Talbot Camp. Following a dinner, the organization of the club was perfected, by-laws as framed by the committee of Messrs. Potter, Sutherland and Scott, were reported and adopted, and President Millard announced the appointment of an executive committee composed of Messrs. Cole, Potter, Scott and Sutherland.

The club will meet again Wednesday evening, June 21, when it will have as guest of honor Cassius Dowell, representative in Congress from the state of Iowa.

A. R. Talbot Camp featured its meeting Thursday evening with an exhibition drill by the Potomac Tribe. The team was drilled for a number of years by Special Deputy Cassidy of the camp's membership, a retired captain of the Marine Corps and a chief forester.

Central Camp on Friday evening extended a welcome to Special Deputy Cassidy of Talbot Camp and Clerk Sullivan of Georgetown Camp, who were visitors.

Several base ball tickets were disposed of the proceeds being donated to the current budget of a local charitable organization.

ROYAL ARCANUM.

In commemoration of the forty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Royal Arcanum an entertainment will be given by Oriental Council, No. 312, at Pythian Temple, Wednesday evening, June 28, at 8 o'clock.

E. Eckloff and the officers of the Grand Council have been invited, as well as all other members of the order. Regent H. J. Davis promises a pleasing program, good music, refreshments and an opportunity for dancing.

Grand Orator A. L. Ebersole at the last meeting of Capitol Council gave an address on the responsibilities and duties of officers in relation to their councils. Grand Secretary Sidney I. Bensel also advised the council.

Arrangements being made for the celebration of Royal Arcanum day, June 23, and of the 45th anniversary of the order being given by the Royal Ladies of Royal Arcanum to the various activities of the several councils.

SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF LIBERTY.

Tuesday night, June 6, Hope Council, No. 1, after a short business session, will have music and dancing. Visiting members will be welcome. The session May 29 will be dispensed with. Representatives to the State Council session will present reports from their recent trip to Danville, Va.

MACABEES.

National Tent No. 1 will have refreshments the first Monday night in June.

Mount Vernon Tent No. 4, Tuesday night, had State Commander Crouch as a visitor.

The excursion this year will be given to Marshall Hall, July 11.

DAUGHTERS OF AMERICA.

A meeting of the "All-star" drill team, which will co-operate with the State Council officers, in the class initiation, for the benefit of the National Council, at its session in October, is called for June 6, at 3d street and Pennsylvania avenue southeast.

Rev. Dr. Barrows will preach at the memorial service this evening at the Eastern Presbyterian Church, Maryland avenue and 6th street northeast.

Triumph Council at its last meeting celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary. The hall was decorated with old flowers and the national colors. The guests of honor were: Past National Councilor Mrs. Louise Cady, Assistant State Councilor Mrs. Ella Chappell, State Council Secretary Charles H. Miller, State Council Treasurer Mrs. Mary Ferguson, State Council Warden Mrs. A. Flynn, State Council Outside Sentinel Mrs. Isabel Wilkinson, Junior State Councilor Mrs. Anna Hill, Assistant Junior State Councilor Mrs. Louise Schwenk and committee served refreshments.

The center of the table was a large Easter egg, which was cake with twenty-five candles.

The joint entertainment committee will meet on June 19 at 31st Pennsylvania avenue southeast and State Council deputies on June 19 at Good Will Club, 15th and Pennsylvania avenue, and 4th street southeast.

Initiatory team from Triumph Council, under the direction of Capt. Harry Buell, recently paid a fraternal visit to Liberty Council and initiated two candidates.

FRATERNAL ORDER OF EAGLES.

Thursday evening Washington Aerie had as guests of honor the members of Aerie No. 871, which was Worthy President James M. Rinehart announced that the next class will be initiated on June 28.

A special session, Past Exalted Ruler Patrick J. Callan of Washington Lodge, No. 15, B. P. O. Elks; William Pinkel, James T. Ryan, Arthur A. Riemer, William Rammel and Secretary J. Donald Britt made address.

The installation of the new officers will take place Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The trustees have arranged special features. The officers for the ensuing year are as follows: Worthy president, Luther E. Hayes; vice president, Arthur A. Riemer; chaplain, R. V. Frankhausen; inner guard, Harry Riebling; outer guard, Vernon B. Frankhausen; treasurer, George B. Haake; secretary, J. Donald Britt; aerie physician, Dr. Charles L. Waters; trustees, Harry Givin, Bruce Fisher and James M. Rinehart, who will also act as past worthy president.

A recent visitor was H. E. Knight from Aerie No. 1031, Mount Vernon, who will be a student at the Lick Observatory.

Announcements Harry C. Givin announced that the excursion will take place at Chesapeake Beach, Md., Tuesday, August 2. Athletic events, baby contest and dancing will be featured.

J. R. O. U. A. M.

Mount Vernon Council, No. 10, will hold a class initiation Thursday, W. C. Whipp will act as master of ceremonies, with R. Umhu in charge of the degree team. A committee has been appointed to assist the band committee in arranging for a carnival for the benefit of the Junior Order Band. A base ball team will represent the council in the Junior Order League. All members who are ball players are requested to communicate with F. L. Barkley, 606 B street southeast.

Reptile Oriental Court, No. 10, recently conferred the O' M. A. degree.

VOLUNTEERS OF AMERICA.

There will be a special meeting of interest to the patriotic this afternoon, 3 o'clock at The Stepping Stone, the home for unemployed former service men operated by the Volunteers of America, at 225 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, under the personal direction of Adj. R. L. Grainger.

At this service Star Spangled Banner Council, No. 8, Junior Order United American Mechanics, will present to The Stepping Stone a large American flag and staff. There will be special music, singing and addresses. The meeting is open to the public.

LOYAL ORDER OF MOOSE.

At the meeting of Greater Washington Lodge No. 125, Tuesday evening, Director General James J. Davis, Secretary of Labor, presided and out-of-town visitors were present.

The report of President Walsh of the Moose Defenders on the excursion to be held Saturday, July 15, to Marshall Hall, was received with enthusiasm. Alexandria Lodge of Moose is to join the Greater Washington Lodge on this occasion.

A meeting of the Moose Defenders was held immediately following the ritualistic work.

B. P. O. ELKS.

The trustees have announced the formal opening of the newly redecorated clubhouse Thursday, June 15, at 8 p.m. This affair will be in charge of the Frostberg (Md.) Club.

of which William Blackman is chairman, and Past Exalted Ruler Patrick J. Callan, organizer of the club, which will be formed June 5. All members and the families can enlist in this club, the books are open a few weeks from that date. It is planned to take to Frostberg, Md., at the state convention of the Elks, the lodge band and "The Jolly Corks," headed by Harry C. Givin. The party, it is hoped, will reach $50 or more.

The housewarming is to be celebrated with a band concert, a buffet supper and dancing upon the roof and in the hall room. The affair is given for the Elks, their families and their friends.

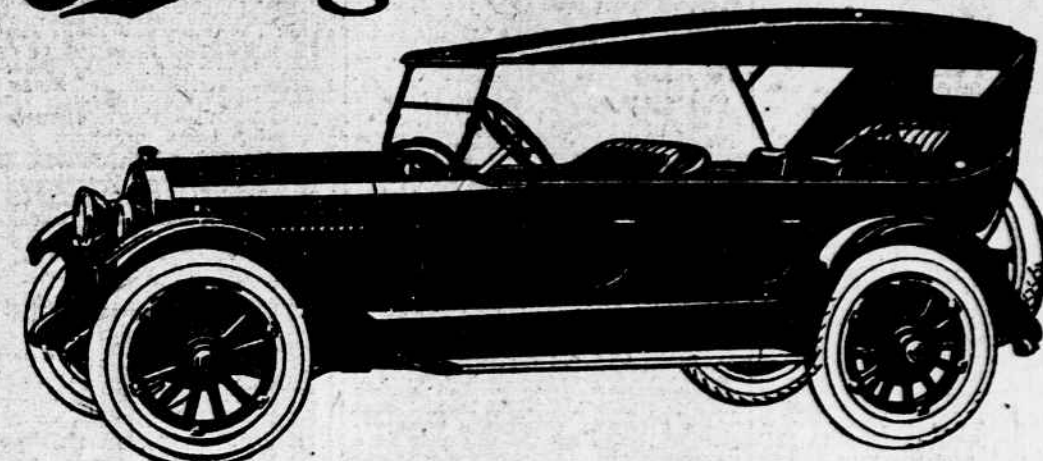

MARINE CORPS ORDERS.

Officers at Quantico, Va., have been assigned to stations as follows: Capt. Charles D. Smith and First Lieut. Henry A. Carr, to Haiti; Capt. Paul C. Marmion, to Navy Department; Capt. Tom E. Wicks, to San Francisco; First Lieut. Earl W. Garvin and Second Lieut. Delmer Byfield, to Santo Domingo, and First Lieut. Col. Louis M. Gulick and Lieut. Col. Thomas N. Brown have been ordered to the Naval War College, Newport, R. I.

Capt. Alfred H. Noble at Virgin Islands, to Hingham, Mass. Lieut. Col. Robert Y. Rhea, in this city, to Santo Domingo. Capt. Graves B. Erskine, at Philadelphia, and Capt. Louis J. Hughes in this city, to Haiti.

Capt. Harry W. Gamble, in this city, to duty with Marine Corps rifle and pistol team.

Oldsmobile

Model 46-7 Passenger Touring

$1735

Look it over!—a big, roomy, 122-inch wheelbase, 7-passenger touring car, powered by an 8-cylinder engine that is the last word in flexibility, quietness and smoothness of operation—a beautiful and completely equipped, luxurious riding motor car for $1735. That's the story of the Larger 8. But its full significance won't fully dawn on you until you actually ride in the car yourself.

OLDS MOTOR WORKS LANSING, MICHIGAN
Division of General Motors Corporation

OLDSMOBILE SALES COMPANY

Salesroom Service Station
Telephone Main 7837
1036-13 Connecticut Ave. 1625 L St. N.W.

THE TREW MOTOR CO.

Distributors
14th STREET AT P
Main 4173

PEERLESS

Unlike Any Other Tire!

See this Demonstration
Week of June 12th

Everywhere, throughout the United States, starting on Monday, June 12th., Lee Dealers will drive fully loaded automobiles equipped with Lee Puncture-proof Pneumatic Tires upon the up-turned points of nails driven through heavy planks.

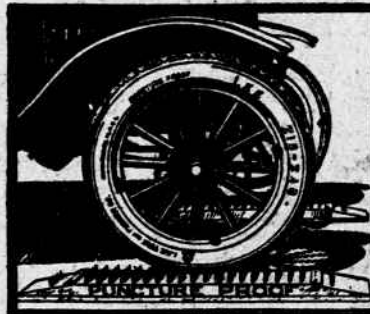

Seeing this demonstration will prove to you, beyond question, that Lee Puncture-proof Pneumatic Tires are actually puncture-proof. Only Lee Puncture-proof Tires can withstand this test.

DISTRIBUTED BY

Lee Tire Sales Company
1600 14th St. N.W.

LEE Tires are sold by

H. W. CUTLER,
2907 M St. N.W., Washington, D. C.
FIRE AUTO SUPPLY CO.,
4501 14th St. N.W., Washington, D. C.
E. NAIMAN,
401 H St. N.W., Washington, D. C.
NINTH STREET GARAGE CO.,
1236 9th St., Washington, D. C.
ROSSLEY MOTOR CO.,
Bosch, Va.
P. F. TIPPITT,
712 E St. N.W., Washington, D. C.
BUTTS TRAYLOR, Wash., D. C.
TORK AUTO SUPPLY CO.,
2701 Georgia Ave. N.W., Washington, D. C.
AMACOGITA SERVICE STATION,
1115 Good Hope road, Washington, D. C.
DISTRICT AUTO SUPPLY CO.,
New Jersey Ave. and 6 & 7 St. N.W., Wash., D. C.
MAKES AUTO SUPPLY,
3000 Sherman Ave. N.W., Washington, D. C.
TERMINAL AUTO SUPPLY,
2nd St. and Mass. Ave. N.W., Washington, D. C.

Steel Disc
Protects the Casing

LEE puncture-Proof Tires
Also Regular Fabric and Cord

Now You Can Get a RAY Battery

2000 Ray Service Stations all over the country have been begging for batteries to fill the ever growing demand for the Ray. Production in the factory has been increased to fill these orders and now we have caught up.

Capacity shipments are being made daily and your dealer can now supply you with the Ray.

The Only Battery with the 2 Year Unconditional Guarantee

With a Ray Battery in your car you get uninterrupted service—starting, lights and ignition for two years, at the price of one battery. The 2 year Unconditional Guarantee is the broadest battery guarantee in the world. It means no forced inspections, no adjustments, no arguments—just a new Ray Battery from your Dealer's stock if yours goes wrong, within two years of the purchase date.

See your Ray Dealer today and learn all about the wonderful Ray Battery and the only 2 year Unconditional Battery guarantee in the world. The Ray costs no more than the ordinary battery.

Ray Battery Co., North Huron St., Ypsilanti, Mich.

Ray Battery Sales Company of the Potomac
715 17th Street N.W. Phone Main 6507

RAY